

Video Interview

The video interview is a chance for you to represent yourself as a good candidate for the ILA. Through these recorded videos, we evaluate your:

1. academic and scholastic capacity and communication skills;
2. motivation and commitment to our liberal arts program;
3. familiarity with current events and academic topics;
4. intellectual curiosity;
5. social aptitude and leadership.

As a reference, the criteria for each of the four video recordings is as follows:

Video 1: Self-introduction and Motivation

Video 2: Critical Thinking and Analytic Skills

Video 3: Subject Knowledge and Interest

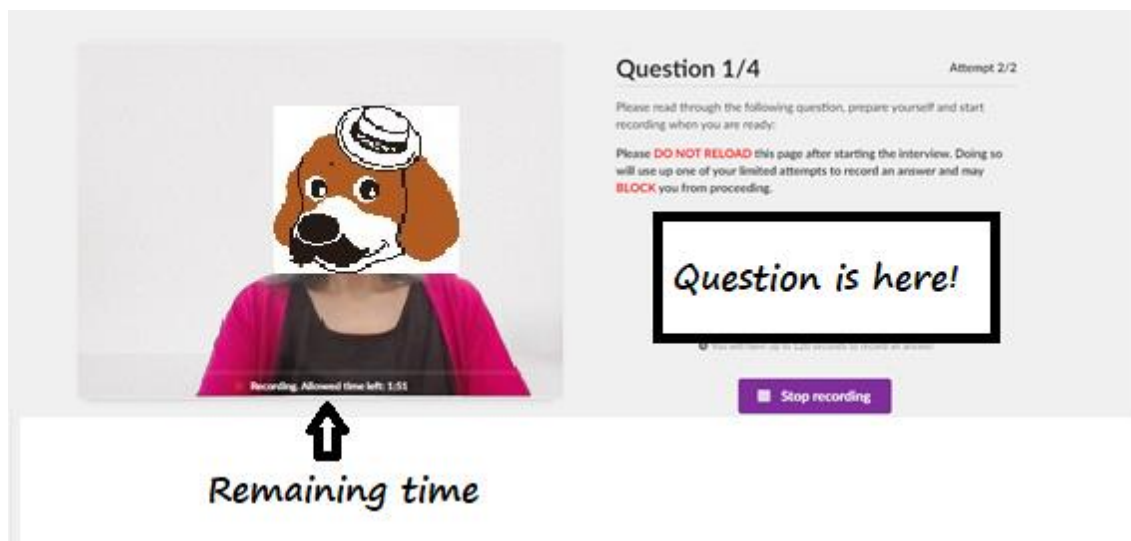

Video 4: Communication and Collaboration Skills

Video Interview Procedures

Please review carefully the following video interview procedures before you begin.

If you have any concerns, please contact the ILA Admissions Office (ji-ila@mail.doshisha.ac.jp) before you begin your interview. Once you begin the video recording you will not be able to pause the interview.

1. After you have submitted all required application documents, you will receive an email with a link to proceed with your video interview.
2. You must complete the video interview within seven days (no more than 168 hours) after receiving the link. The link will expire after 168 hours at which point your application will be invalidated.
3. Check your computing device, including the webcam and microphone, by following the instructions on the interview site in our online application system.
4. There are four questions in total and you will be given 150 seconds to answer each question.
5. The interview will start approximately ten seconds after you press the “start” button.
6. The interview will only be recorded once (one attempt). You will not be able to re-record.
7. After you begin the recording, the interview will proceed non-stop from one question to the next. You must complete all four questions in succession. You will not be able to pause the recording or return to a question.
8. Please note the position of the interview questions on the page below. (Note that the remaining wording is the same for each question.)

We look forward to reviewing your videos and wish you the best of luck!
